Reception at Lee Camp Hall by Richmond Chapter, U. D. C.
TODAY.
Luncheon to regents, vice-regents and officers of the Confederate Memorial Literary Society by Mrs. L. C. Daniel and Mrs. T. A. Cary.

Mrs. Robinson's Tea.
A large number of distinguished reunion visitors were among the guests at the tea given yesterday afternoon from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock by Mrs. E. T. Robinson, of No. 512 East Franklin Street.

Miss Mary Custis Lee, daughter of General Robert E. Lee, and Miss Dora Hampton, daughter of General Wade Hampton, were the guests of honor. Appropriate decorations were in red and white. Tall vases of red and white roses formed the floral decoration. White candles in antique silver candelabra glowed rosy through red shades.

Mrs. Robinson was most pleasantly assisted in entertaining by Mrs. J. S. Davenport, Mrs. James Alston Cabell, Mrs. David Dunlop of Petersburg, and Mrs. E. T. Robinson, Jr.

Misses Martha Robinson, Ellen Blair, Martha Palmer, Sadie Sutton, Bertha Adams, Elizabeth Townes and Jane Preston Boulevard served the dainty refreshments.

This was the initial event in a series of entertainments which will make reunion week the gayest of the season, and one to be long remembered both by Richmond hostesses and Confederate guests.

Reception Committee.
The following ladies will constitute the reception committee in the Virginia Room of the Confederate Museum Friday afternoon during the reception: Mrs. J. Taylor Ellison, vice-regent of the room; Mrs. Archer Anderson, Mrs. Hunter McGuire, Mrs. John L. Campbell, of Lexington, Va., Miss Norma Stewart, Mrs. Charles Fernal and Miss Sallie Anderson.

Club Reception to Guests.
Invitations have been issued for a reception to be given by the Woman's Club on Saturday afternoon, from 5 to 7 o'clock, in honor of some of the city's lady guests during the reunion. Invitations being necessarily limited to the ladies who are here in an official capacity and to a few others prominently connected with the Confederacy, visitors' cards will not be good on that occasion, nor can any residents of Richmond be invited; but it is hoped that all club members will be present to welcome their guests.

McGuire-Longan.

Mrs. W. T. Woolfolk, who attended her sister as matron of honor, wore white crepe de chine, trimmed with lace. Miss Bessie Woodson McGuire, as bridesmaid, was charmingly gowned in a white serge suit worn with a lace blouse. Both ladies carried bouquets of white roses and maidenhair ferns.

Mr. John M. Casper was best man, and Dr. Robert Longan, the bride's brother, was the only groomsmen.

The bride entered with her father. She wore a beautiful going-away gown of gray voile over tulle, with hat and gloves to match, and carried Bride's roses.
